1980s

The August 2018 issue of Baton Rouge Christian Life Magazine features Baton Rouge Zoo Director Phil Frost ’80 on its cover. The related article by Susan Brown—“Conservation and Christianity”—touches on the lessons God’s creatures can teach us and the delight of pursuing loved work. “I truly feel that I was called to do what I’m doing,” says Frost.

3 2017 and 2018 have been banner years for Carol Wilson ’81. Best Lawyers in America included her in its most recent Best Lawyers in America listing, and D Magazine included her among its 2018 Best Lawyers in Dallas. She was named a Texas Super Lawyer for the seventh consecutive year and the ninth time overall. Wilson is board certified in family law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. carolwilsonlaw.com.

Greenville University’s 2014 Distinguished Alumnus United States Navy Commander Steve Coates ’85 delivered the invocation at the Coca Cola 600 NASCAR Race over Memorial Day weekend. Thousands of troops joined fans in activities surrounding the race, including a patriotic salute. “God, who is not slow, on this speedway we come to a complete stop to honor you and seek your mercy and protection,” said Coates, who concluded his prayer, “in the name of the one who drives out fear.”

4 Norm Hall ’87 was named the fifteenth president of Simpson University in Redding, California. Hall served Greenville University for over 20 years as vice president for student development and most recently as vice president for international and alumni affairs. “He is a seasoned leader,” said Greenville

University President Ivan Filby, announcing the appointment. “I know he will do an excellent job leading Simpson University through its next stage of development.”
